Leadership Fall Retreat
November 10-12, 2006

General (Ret.) Robert "Doc" Foglesong and his 2006 Scholarship Recipients of The Appalachian Leadership and Education Foundation, convened this past weekend at Stonewall Jackson for a leadership retreat featuring a weekend of leadership sessions and character building activities under his direction. The recipients are completing their first semesters at Concord and Shepherd Universities. This is the second of such retreats that concentrate on the General's professional expertise pertaining to leadership.
