ALEF COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Full Four-Year Scholarships Available to West Virginia High School Graduates

The Appalachian Leadership and Education Foundation (ALEF) recruits and educates young men and women who are academically qualified, hard-working and assertive, but who would otherwise find college financially challenging. Our goal is to develop these young men and women into skilled citizens and future leaders for Appalachia and the Nation. Our core values are to develop a sense of integrity in everything our Fellows do; to instill an ingrained belief in service-before-self; and to guide them to strive for character, leadership, and technical excellence.

In 2008, ALEF will bestow full scholarships to a select group of West Virginia High School Graduates. The scholarship recipients are required to attend Concord, Shepherd or Marshall Universities in West Virginia. The scholarship will be renewed each year when the Fellow has maintained a satisfactory GPA and has met the character standards and leadership requirements of ALEF. The Fellows may major in whatever academic specialty they desire (with exception of Marshall University which must be a Civil Engineering major) and will also attend classes specially designed to develop character and leadership skills taught by professors who have proven leadership abilities and have internalized the core values of our organization.

Eligibility

Applicants must:

- * Be a graduating high-school senior.
- * Must complete the FASFA forms. (on-line www.fafsa.ed.gov)
- * Have at least a 2.8 point average (GPA). ALEF scholarships will be awarded to deserving students whose academic credentials fall within an average range to above-average range.
- * Have exhibited character and leadership skills through academic, athletic, or religious extracurricular activities.
- * Express an interest to remain in West Virginia following graduation.
- * Be accepted by one of the participating universities (Concord, Shepherd or Marshall)

ALEF offers talented young men and women of West Virginia an extraordinary opportunity, who find college financially challenging, to join a Fellowship which includes a full scholarship accompanied by a leadership/character development curriculum and meaningful activities throughout the four year scholarship.

Application Instructions

- * Type or complete on-line and print off all requested information to mail in.
- * Complete the scholarship information in full. If any information is incomplete, the application will be rejected.
- * Prepare a 300-word essay on one of the following topics:
 1. Describe the community in which you live and indicate how it has influenced the person you are.
 2. Describe a mentor or leader you admire.
- * Have two school representatives (teacher, principal, coach, counselor, ect.) complete the Educator's Statement (forms attached).
Statements must be submitted in a sealed envelope from the author.
- * Submit one letter of recommendation from a local community leader other than an educator (elected official, local business leader, etc.). Recommendations must be submitted in a sealed envelope from the author.
- * Include your most recent grade transcript (all seven semesters must be submitted).
- * All signatures must be provided where indicated on the application.

Terms and Conditions

- * Full scholarships will be awarded. The scholarship will automatically be renewed for three (3) subsequent years if the Fellow maintains a satisfactory GPA and has met the character standards and leadership requirements of ALEF.
- * All applications will be reviewed and winners selected by a selection committee composed of ALEF educators and/or Board of Directors.
- * Winners will be notified by mid May 2008.
- * Scholarships will be awarded without regard to race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, gender, or disability.
- * Incomplete applications will not be considered. Refer to the checklist below to ensure that all components of the application have been fulfilled.
